

Evening Illustrated Ledger

THURSDAY
June 17, 1915

MEN AND WOMEN FROM HOME AND EVENTS AT HOME AND OVERSEAS SHOWN THROUGH THE CAMERA

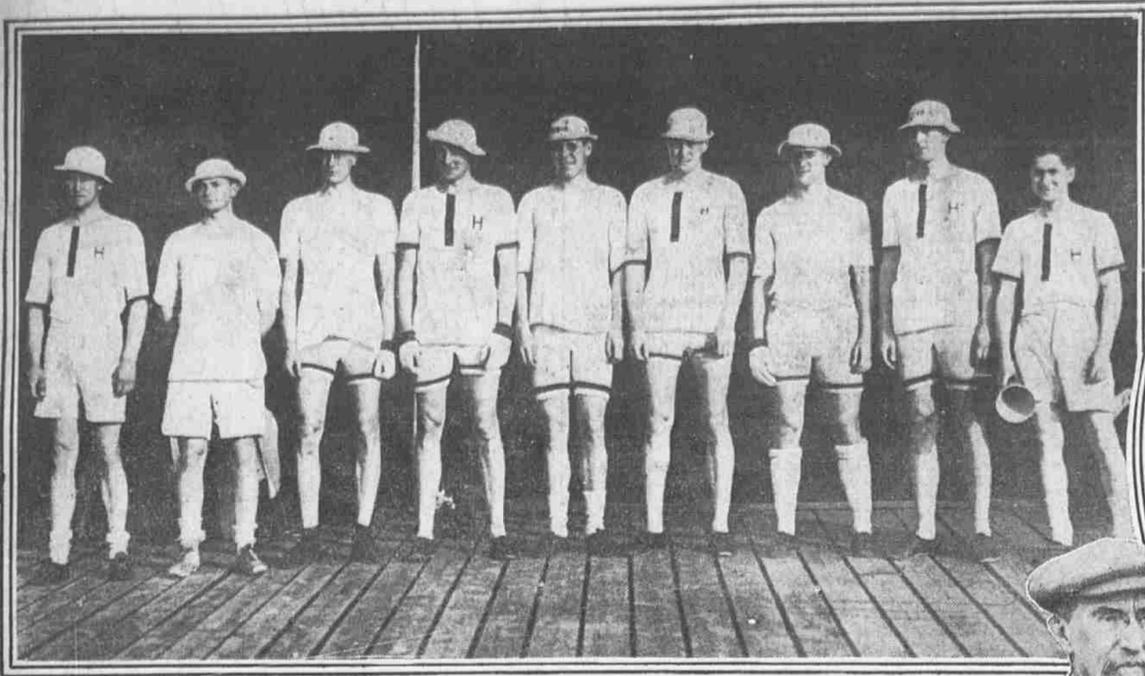

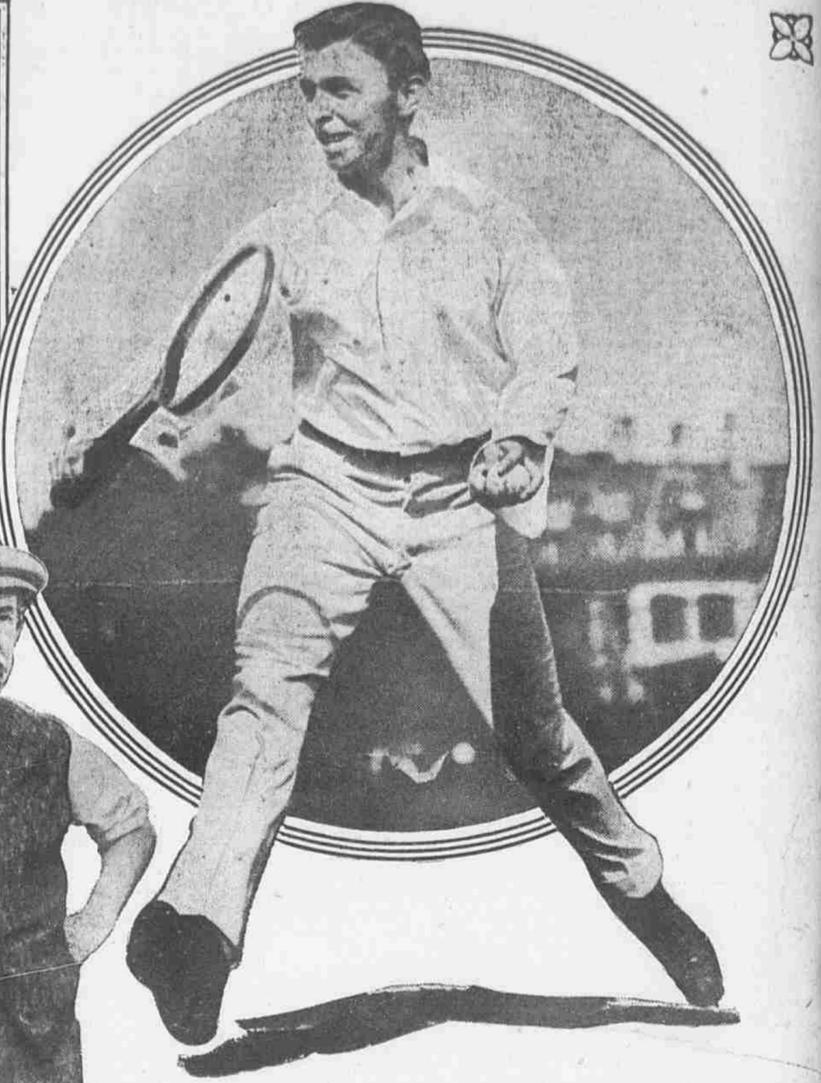

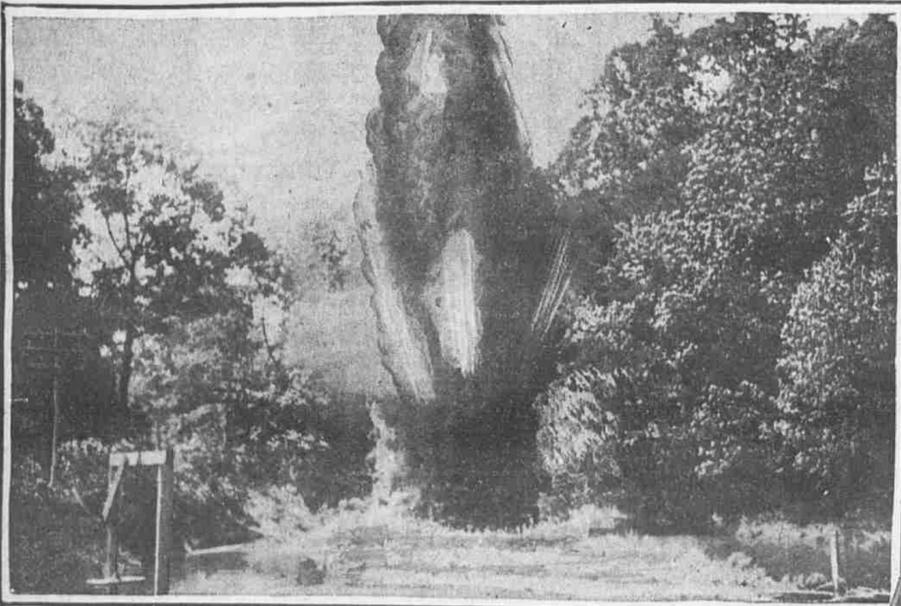

Photo by Underwood & Underwood
HARVARD CREW AT RED TOP IN SHAPE FOR HARVARD-YALE BOAT RACES
Harvard Varsity eight, left to right—Murray (captain), Morgan (2), Stebbins (3), Hardwood (4), Middendorf (5), Parson (6), Cabot (7), Lund (stroke), Kreger, extreme right, coxswain.

J. R. ROWLAND ON THE COURT
Playing a sharp backhand, and playing it well.

BLOWING UP AN ISLAND BY DYNAMITE
Two charges of dynamite did the work of $2500 worth of dredging at Beachwood Park, and did it in a picturesque manner, as shown above.

A. F. HOUSTON
The prominent Coatesville steel manufacturer is a great devotee of golf. He is a member of St. David's.

MRS. A. K. BILLSTEIN AT HER FAVORITE PASTIME
Mrs. Billstein is a president and prolific Philadelphia golfer.

Photo by Henry Reuss
GERMANS CELEBRATING SPRING DAY IN RUSSIAN POLAND
The improvised concert is in honor of the first day of spring spent by the German troops in the enemy's country.

